SECRETARIAT POLITICAL BRANCH. 9 OCT 1918

Dear Sir,

It would appear that a disturbance took place at an insignificant shandy of Didaga in the Chennarayapatna -- Taluk on the 1st instant, when clothes worth about Rs2000/- were carried away by some bad mashes. A few of the Patels of the surrounding villages also are said to have taken a -- prominent part in the disturbance. The Police Superintendent has proceeded to the spot though the information came late i-e on the 5th idem.

The matter will be duly investigated and reported in -- due course. I shall also visit the spot, if necessary, and guide the enquiry.

Yours sincerely,

Venkatachar
